The School

IN 1901, the present Principal opened classes in modest quarters for the teaching of Literature, Expression, and Physical Education. These classes soon attracted attention, and, in a few years, outgrew their accommodation. In 1906, a charter of incorporation as a school was obtained, and the present handsome building was erected through the generosity of the late Timothy Eaton, Esq., and of Margaret W. Eaton, his wife. The school then became known as the Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression, and has since been enabled to extend its work, and to increase its Faculty, through the continued liberality of the lady whose name it bears.

The Foundation

THE LOCATION of the School on North Street, just south of Bloor and within two blocks of Yonge Street, is particularly favourable. It offers the advantage of being within easy reach of three of the most important street-car lines, without having its quiet disturbed by any ; and of being readily accessible, both from the great business centres of the city, and from the most beautiful residential districts. Queen's Park is within five minutes' walk, and the University and the Public Reference Libraries are at no inconvenient distance.

The Location

THE PURPOSE of the School is:

I. To provide advanced courses of study for young women who have completed the work of the secondary schools and wish to receive further instruction, but who, for any reason, do not wish to undertake the full burden of University work. Such students will find courses in English, Dramatic Art, French, and Physical Education, so arranged as to support and supplement one another. In presenting these subjects, the School aims at the development of the whole being of the student, physical, mental and moral. Moreover, recognizing the influence of environment, an effort is made to provide harmonious, artistic surroundings. A visit to the Recital Hall and the Studios will show how far this effort has succeeded.

II. To offer short courses to women whose household, social, or professional duties prevent them from entering the more extensive courses. The attention of such is specially directed to the following classes:

The Browning Class.
The Shakespeare Class.
The Studio Recital.
The Class on Modern Dramatists.
The Club for the Study of Contemporary Authors.
The Women's Physical Training Class.
The French Conversation Classes.
The Evening Classes in Physical Education.
The Tuesday Evening Literary Class.

III. To prepare students for professional life. Graduates of our School are meeting with success as:

Teachers of Physical Education.
Teachers of Expression.
Public Readers.
Interpreters of the Drama on the Professional Stage.
Supervisors of Playgrounds.
Workers in Social Settlements.
Workers in the Young Women's Christian Association.

IV. To prepare men and women in public life (such as Clergymen, Teachers, Lecturers, etc.,) for public speaking.

*The

V. To correct certain physical defects, such as constricted throat, defective speech, spinal curvature, etc. Excellent results have been obtained in this corrective work.

Conditions of Admission

*For Courses

STUDENTS may register for one class per week, or for any number. No educational requirements are made of these special students.
